The History of Berry Bros. & Rudd

In 1698, Berry Bros. & Rudd opened shop at 3 St James's Street – and three hundred years on, we're still proud to call it home. We are Britain's original wine and spirit merchant and while much has changed over the years, many things have remained constant. We continue to be owned and managed by members of the Berry and Rudd families. We continue to weigh customers on a set of giant coffee scales, a tradition that begun in the 1760s. Lord Byron, William Pitt and the Aga Khan are among those who have had their weights recorded.

We continue to supply wine to the British Royal Family, as we have done since King George III's reign, and are the proud holder of two Royal Warrants, for H.M. The Queen and H.R.H. The Prince of Wales.

Most importantly of all, we continue to hold to the simple belief that wine is meant to be enjoyed and that all wine knowledge can be distilled to one question: "Is it good to drink?"
